MORE THAN A DOZEN POLICE CARS INVOLVED IN HOT PURSUIT OF FLORIDA MAN AND WOMAN

Two-state, four-county chase ends in shootout near Opp

 by Marvin McIlwain
 Editor

A chase which began in Holmes County, Florida ended in Covington County, Alabama with shots being fired and one individual wounded.

According to reports, the incident began mid-morning Tuesday when Dallas Simmons (age unknown at press time) abducted his estranged wife at gun-point from a bank in Bonifay, Florida.

Florida law enforcement agencies put out a B.O.L.O. (Be-On-Look-Out) for a light tan, late model, Nissan bearing a Florida license plate. The vehicle reportedly belong to Simmons' estranged wife Kathy.

The vehicle was spotted shortly afterwards in Geneva, Alabama by Geneva Police Chief Frankie Lindsey. The chief, on his unmarked police car, was able to stop the vehicle with the assistance of another unmarked Geneva police car.

After the Geneva police had the suspect vehicle stopped, Simmons flashed a pistol, holding it to his wife's head and telling officers he would kill her if they did not let them go. The officers backed off.

The suspect vehicle, still being driven by Mrs. Simmons, proceeded north toward Enterprise with Geneva police in "surveillance pursuit."

Enterprise police were alerted to the situation and prepared for a possible interception of the vehicle as it approached the city.

As the car reached Enterprise the decision was made to allow it to proceed through the city (downtown) and attempt a "take down" once it had cleared the congested area.

A favorable opportunity did not present itself for the car to be stopped so it was allowed to continue westward. New Brockton and Elba police were alerted that the suspect car was headed their way along U.S. Highway 84.

A plan to stop the car East of Elba before it entered the downtown area did not materialize. Again, the suspect car was allowed to pass through town and plans made to make the stop once it had cleared the congested area.

Just West of Elba, the intensity of the pursuit heightened as police units attempted to pass the vehicle and execute a "rolling roadblock." That is a situation where police vehicles get in front of and on the side of the suspect car and force it to stop. Each time this was tried, the suspect placed the gun to his wife's head or pointed the weapon at the intervening officers. They backed off fearing that he might harm the woman.

The chase proceeded through Danley's Crossroads and to U.S. 331 where it then turned South toward Opp.

At one point, there were more than a dozen law enforcement vehicles in pursuit of a vehicle occupied by a man and driven by his estranged wife.

The decision was made to stop the suspect vehicle at a bridge just north of Opp where Lake Frank Jackson backs up under Highway 331. The Opp police responded along with Covington County Sheriff's units.

As the suspect vehicle traveled South, Simmons apparently ordered his wife to stop the car. When she did, he fired at the pursuit vehicles striking Chief Lindsey's car several times. As the chase neared the roadblock, the suspect car turned right onto N. Opine Road (Covington Co. Rd. 38) with law enforcement vehicles in "hot pursuit."

The chase continued down Co. Rd. 38 toward a crossroads where a Covington County Sheriff's unit had set up a roadblock. The suspect car slowed down as it neared the roadblock but then sped past the sheriff's unit onto a dirt road.

As the car roared past, one of the deputies stepped out of the woods where he had taken cover and shot the tires of the suspect car with an fully-automatic weapon, causing a blow-out.

The car continued for four-tenths of a mile down the dirt road before Mrs. Simmons lost control or purposely ran into the ditch.

The suspect began firing at the officers in pursuit as they approached the car.

Bullets struck three Elba police cars. One car, driven by Investigator Donnie Byrd, was struck in the windshield on the driver's side by a single bullet. Byrd was hit in the face by shattering glass but did not sustain any serious injuries.

Another Elba unit being driven by Investigator Ronnie Davis, with Sgt. Randy White riding on the passenger's side, was hit twice by gunfire.

One shot went through the windshield on the passenger's side lodging near the rear window. Another bullet struck the hood and glanced off.

As Officer White was dodging the flying bullets, he held up a tape case, which the bullet coming through the windshield passed through.

Elba Police Chief Jack Parker's police cruiser was the third Elba unit struck by gunfire. The bullet struck that car just under the right front headlight.

The suspect exited the car and was struck by gunfire. It was not clear, at the time of this writing, which officer fired the shot that reportedly struck Mr. Simmons in the right thigh. Officers Byrd, White, Davis, and Chief Lindsey were all exchanging gunfire with the suspect. Simmons was taken into custody at the scene by Investigator Ronnie Davis who turned him over to Covington County Sheriff's deputies.

He was transported to Mizell Memorial Hospital by the Opp Rescue Squad, where he was received treatment for the leg wound.

Simmons was later moved to the Covington County Jail in Andalusia, Alabama.

Mrs. Simmons suffered no visible physical injuries during her ordeal. She was allowed to return to Bonifay, accompanied by Holmes County deputies.

According to Covington County Sheriff Wilbur Mitchell, charges against Simmons could include kidnapping and at least four counts of attempted murder.

He also said other charges may be placed against Simmons as the investigation continues.

The Alabama Bureau of Investigation will be in charge of the shooting investigation, assisted by the Covington County Sheriff's Department and District Attorney's Office.

Law enforcement agencies taking part in the chase included: Geneva, Enterprise, New Brockton, Elba, and Opp Police Departments; Coffee County and Covington County Sheriff's Departments, and the Alabama State Troopers. The Holmes County, Florida Sheriff's Department units were in the area, but were not directly involved in the arrest, as the chase and arrest were made across the state line.

Tractor-trailer rig struck by gunfire

 by Marvin McIlwain
 Editor

A tractor-trailer was fired on Saturday night as it was traveling north on AL Highway 167.

According to Coffee County Sheriff Brice Paul, an individual or individuals fired shots into an 18-wheeler belonging to Donnell Trucking Company.

The incident occurred between 10:30 and 11:00 p.m. at the intersection of AL Highways 167 & 51 northeast of New Brockton.

Reportedly the shots came from a shotgun and possibly a handgun. The blast struck the tractor on the passenger side striking the rear view mirror and breaking the window.

Paul said, "It blew the glass out of the right door, and the driver sustained minor injuries as glass struck his forehead and face."

There were also what appeared to be bullet holes in the curbside side of the trailer being pulled by the tractor.

The sheriff's department is asking anyone that might have seen a vehicle at or near the old Tindol Tire Store between the hours of 10 and 11 p.m. Saturday night to notify them.

A reward is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the shooting.

Citizens make effort to help teenagers

 by Ferrin Cox
 Publisher

A number of Elba citizens have joined together in an effort to help area teenagers.

Called Basic Outreach, the group hopes to work with children of all ages in an effort to keep them off the streets "hanging around" and into improving their values, their education, life styles and religious practices.

Their thoughts are that it is the children of Elba are given the right leadership, they will grow into productive law abiding adults who respect the rights of others.

Last Thursday night a core group of about 75 citizens met in the Bethel A.M.E. Church on Harper Street to discuss their plans.

Mr. Ronnie Hammonds has already been named Chairman of the Board and Mr. Paul Phillips is serving as President. Mrs. Belinda Ordron is serving as Secretary.

The theme of the Basic Outreach comes from Proverbs 22:6. "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

The group plans to work with children of all ages to insure they get the proper guidance in life. Support was voiced from Elba Mayor Ricky Haywood, Police Chief Jack Parker, the judicial system, area ministers and residents of the community.

The group will meet again Thursday night at 7 p.m.

By Bobbie Simmons

Zion Chapel seniors were presented class t-shirts on Thursday, November 4, at the Senior Class meeting. The meeting was held so the seniors could view a video telling them about senior portraits. Mrs. Rachel Bryan, one of the class sponsors, talked to the seniors about how much the portraits would cost and when they were to be taken. A decision was made that if the portraits were in color in the annual, the girls would wear burgundy drapes and the boys would wear tuxedos.

The Senior Class later voted on the color of the gowns to be worn at graduation. The decision was that both sexes would wear red gowns. The class voted on the yellow rose as the class flower. The class colors that were chosen were red and black.

Mr. Mark Cole and Mr. Doug Branson are the other Senior Class sponsors.

Laura Brown Conducts FBLA Installation Ceremony

One of the duties of being a Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) state officer is to conduct officer installation ceremonies for surrounding FBLA chapters.

Serving as State FBLA Secretary-Treasurer, that is exactly what Laura Brown did. During October, Laura was invited by Enterprise High School to come and be a part of their first official FBLA chapter meeting. The meeting was held at 5:15 in the Business Department. The meeting was then called to order by their president, Beth Brand. Laura then was introduced and conducted their installation ceremony.

In an installation ceremony, each officer has a different colored candle that represents their particular office. Each officer takes an oath to fulfill all the duties of his/her office and then lights his/her candle from the white candle which the installing officer holds. After the installation ceremony was over, the Enterprise chapter continued with their order of business. As a part of the meeting, Laura also had to represent the Enterprise chapter at the meeting.

On October 20, Laura was once again invited to conduct the installation ceremony for the Coffee County Area Vocational Center Chapter of FBLA. The chapter at the Area Vocational Center has members from all three of the county schools—Kinston, New Brocton, and Zion Chapel. Therefore, the officers may be from different schools. At this meeting, the president, John Pittman, called the meeting to order and then introduced Laura. Again, Laura installed each of the officers. The business meeting was then conducted and adjourned.

The next event for the Alabama FBLA and state officer team is to attend the Southern Region National Fall Leadership Conference in Charlotte, North Carolina, on November 12-13.

Beta Club Joins Bucket Brigade

by Crystal Whitt

The Zion Chapel Beta Club participated in the American Diabetes Association Bucket Brigade. The project was a part of the club's community service projects for this year. Eighteen buckets were distributed to businesses in the area. These businesses included Green's Country Kitchen in Victoria, Jimmy's Barber Shop in Enterprise, Nita's Style Shop in Jack, SouthTrust Bank in Troy, and Whitman's Drugs in Elba.

ZC Beta Club Holds Meeting

by Crystal Whitt

The Zion Chapel Beta Club met recently on Club Day. The club ordered shirts which were $9 each. Each club member got a "Thank You" note for their help in the active campaign going on for state office. The club was also discussed the convention to be held in March, was discussed and final room reservations were made. Club members competing in events received their entry forms to fill out for registration. Possible fundraisers were also discussed.

December will be a busy month for the club and upcoming events were discussed. A spend-the-night party at Mrs. Shaw's house will be on December 3 to make Christmas wreaths for the Nursing Home. A trip was planned to visit the Nursing Home to present the wreaths on December 6. The club plans to participate in Operation Santa Claus to participate in the collection of toys for needy children. In their McGuffey classes at Zion Chapel Elementary School, students were given red ribbons proclaiming "Drug Free. To Be or Not to Be. As part of Red Ribbon Week, Officer Joan.

Junior FFA Members Meet

by Arleen Prigden

A tribute to George Washington Carver was the theme of the FFA exhibit at the Peanut Festival. The Junior members of FFA discussed their exhibit when they met for their monthly meeting. They talked about Carver and the products he made. Also on the agenda was the apple and orange sale which ends on November 19.

Then the club sponsor, Mr. John McCarty, talked about a new contest called Parliamentary Procedure and how the members could qualify and compete in this activity. One suggestion was that getting four members of the group to perform as a quartet. Two guys and two girls will be chosen for this title.

Then the club president, Lee Jacobs, discussed the Expo attended by the junior and senior members of FFA in Moultrie, Georgia.

After this discussion, the meeting was adjourned.

Zion Chapel Well Represented

by Melissa Jones

Nicki Pilcher, Zion Chapel alumni, led the 50th National Peanut Festival Parade held Saturday, November 6, 1993 in downtown Dothan, Alabama. The parade highlighted the final day of the National Peanut Festival and a crowd of 130,000 was on hand to watch the event.

Zion Chapel was well-represented at this spectacular event. There were 25 bands in this year's parade and one of those bands was the Zion Chapel High School Marching Band. Other organizations participating from Zion Chapel were several Varsity and Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders, Little Miss Zion Chapel Anna Miller, Miss Zion Chapel Chris Green, Miss Coffee County Laura Brown, and this year's Miss National Peanut Festival Nicki Pilcher.

Zion Chapel can be very proud of all those who represented our school for the 50th Anniversary of the National Peanut Festival.

D.A.R.E. Officer Speaks To Elementary Students

by Melissa Jones

The week of October 23-31 was proclaimed as Red Ribbon Week in Alabama. The purpose of Red Ribbon Week was to promote a commitment to a drug-free, healthy life-style. To demonstrate this commitment, citizens were urged to wear and display red ribbons during the week-long campaign.

In their McGuffey classes at Zion Chapel Elementary School, students were given red ribbons proclaiming "Drug Free. To Be or Not to Be. As part of Red Ribbon Week, Officer Joan.

Second Grade Goes Prehistoric

by Joey Arnold

At one time, many second graders at Zion Chapel would have believed that all dinosaurs were friendly, purple, and sang nice songs. After completing a study of the life and habits of dinosaurs their view of these giant, extinct reptiles has vastly changed. million years ago, however, they became extinct. Scientists believe that massive temperature changes caused the warm-blooded dinosaurs to die out.

The students ended their study of dinosaurs by completing a project showing how the dinosaurs lived and they environment in which they lived.

EHS Hosts College Day

by Maria Williams

The decision to go to the right college is one of the most important ones made in life. It is also one of the most headache producing processes imaginable. Thankfully, on Friday, November 12, students and parents were given a chance to get some relief from these headaches came to the juniors and seniors of New Brocton, Kinston, Zion Chapel, Enterprise and Elba High Schools in the form of College Day. EHS was this year's host school for the annual event and its first two periods of the day were devoted to informing local students on the variety of colleges around the state. Representatives from several different colleges were present in the commons area and were ready to answer any questions the students might have. Several minds were put to ease by helpful information given on courses, financial aid, and housing. Hopefully, many headaches are stopping as they had a chance to become migraines.

Heath Wyroslick, Health is the son of Rex Wyroslick and Kay Harmon. He enjoys hunting, fishing, lifting weights, and hanging out with the guys. His most memorable event of high school is winning the State Championship in '92. He attends the Elba Church of God. After graduating, Heath plans to go to college and study mortuary.

Ashley Weeks, Ashley is the son of Dikes and Kathy Weeks. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, and working at the Big Bear. He attends Zion Chapel Baptist Church. His most memorable event of high school has been winning the 1992 3A State Championship. Ashley's future plans are to go to college and major in accounting or education.

Gary Bryant, Gary is the son of Junior and Elaine Bryant. He attends church at New Haven Baptist Church. His hobbies include weight lifting, working, and swimming. Gary's most memorable event at EHS is that he is always getting in trouble. His future plans include going to college and making a lot of money.

LaShawn Russell, LaShawn is the daughter of Paul and Helen Russell. She attends church at Harris Temple COGIC. Here hobbies include singing, playing the keyboard, and talking with family and friends. Shaw's most memorable event at EHS was when the PALS class went to Maxwell Air Force Base and Novella fell in the water. Her future plans are to attend college.

Mrs. Padgett's Advanced English Classes Write Epitaphs

During this six weeks, Mrs. Padgett's advanced English classes have written epitaphs and persuasive papers using early American writers as their models. They read some of Ben Franklin's works and used his epitaph as a literary example. They were asked to write an epitaph on some well-known person, a personal friend, or themselves. The following epitaphs are examples of their work.

Here lies the body of PAUL ALLEN SAULS, SR. Like a beautiful angel sent down from above Showing and sharing nothing but love He always cared and understood More than anyone else ever could He was more than a father, grandfather and son Where anything was concerned he was number one

The body of LIEUTENANT WADE, Barber Like the stillness of his clippers. That no longer work. His small feeble body.

Here lies DAWN GRIMES. Her life was like the music she loved. Beginning adagio and allegretto. She entered this world March 29, 1977. Allegro was her sense of humor. Her temper, staccato. But alas! the last note has sounded As the Master Conductor ended Beautiful symphony of notes That was the orchestration of her life. Born: March 29, 1977 Died: By Dawn Grimes

Here lies HEATHER LEIGH LAWFORD. Like the end of a sentence, which lasted a lifetime. Only to be concluded With a glorious novel of eternal life. Lived with Jesus Christ. She was born May 16, 1977. Died: By Heather Lawford

Here lies ELENA STRONG. Tendu, arabesque, pirouette, and plie. Her life was one of a ballerina. She took lessons, taught them, performed, and competed. Her lifelong desires were almost completed. She was only 5'6" - Oh, what a pity! She needed one more inch to be a Rockette at Radio City.

PALS Take A Field Trip

On October 25, the PALS class took a trip to Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery. The class is a group of eleventh and twelfth graders who work with elementary students as their "big buddies". It is taught by Mrs. Donna Clark. The class participated in a leadership program sponsored by Maxwell. Even after an early start, the group was late due to a slight confusion with the directions. The PALS students were divided into two groups when they arrived. Each group was led by two nice and helpful guides. The program consisted of several obstacle courses to be completed. The courses involved both mental and physical actions. Each group had to solve problems and situations. The late start obviously did not hinder the eager groups. With encouragement from the guides and fellow classmates, the PALS class had an extremely successful morning. Everyone participating had a wonderful time and expressed thanks to Maxwell Air Force Base, the Montgomery YMCA, and all others associated for inviting the Elba PALS class to attend. The following are a few people who participated and their comments about the trip: Novella Robinson: "It was all right until I fell into the water." Mandy Pope: "It was fun!" LaShawn Russell: "It was a good experience that brought more unity to our class." Antonio Orsini: "It was a good experience and I would go again if I could." Lori Smith: "It was a great experience for all who went. More students should get involved with things like this to build leadership skills."

LUNCHTIME POLL

by Fabrika Tillis & LaShawn Russell

Who do you think will win the Alabama Auburn football game this year and who do you think the score will be? Cory Driggers: "The University of Alabama will win. The score will be Auburn 27 and Auburn 13." Novella Robinson: "Auburn Tigers 27 to 7." Alice Hammonds: "Roll Tide will Roll once again - All over Auburn by a score of 47 to 6. Go Bama!" Jason Holley: "Auburn wins! Doubt it! Roll Tide Bama 20 to Auburn 14." Sasha Kidd: "War Eagle Auburn 14 - Alabama 7." April Whitfield: "Auburn who? Alabama once again 20 to 6." Brian Michelson: "Auburn 21 to 14." Sue King: "Auburn 17 to 14." Darryl Patterson: "Auburn 35 to 7." Brittany McCall: "Alabama 7 to 6." Teresa Stoumire: "Alabama 14 to 7."

To the Citizens of Elba:

This week, November 15-20, is American Education Week. We, the members of the Elba Education Association, encourage everyone to help us observe this week by pausing a moment to reflect on the place public education holds in our community. We, as teachers, have before us every day the most obvious reminder of the importance of our work.

As we set about our task of educating the community's children, we ask the parents to keep in mind their role as educators also. Our children must have strong and consistent attention at home to be sure they are prepared to take full advantage of what is offered at school. Together, teachers and parents must instill positive values and a solid work ethic in our children. Our young people are assailed daily through the media with notions and promotions that may distort and undercut their sense of right and wrong if they don't receive guidance at home.

Teachers and parents cannot do the job alone. Our schools and our children must also have support and encouragement in spirit and in substance from business, the church, and civic groups. We count ourselves blessed with support as shown by our community in the past.

Let us pause this week to reflect on our role in the education of our children, whether we are a teacher, a parent, or an interested citizen. As we consider our commitment to education in our community, we should remember this bit of wisdom, "It's a funny thing about life; if you refuse to accept anything but the best, you very often get it."

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The weatherman's forecast for Friday night was for clear skies and cool temperatures. So, that meant that Melanie got to attend the playoff game and cheer for the Tigers in their win over Slocomb. Melanie wasn't real sure who actually won the game, but she did like the drums and cheerleaders and made a number of trips to the concession stand. That's what football is all about to a four-year-old!

ELBA TIGERS SURVIVE OPENING ROUND BATTLE

Coaches hate to play a team twice in the same season, especially after beating a team had the first time around. Now everyone knows why! The Elba Tigers survived a lull after first half effort, then woke up late in the third quarter and took control as they whipped the Slocomb Red Tops 35-13. Friday night in the opening round of the playoffs, Coach Wood had told me earlier in the week that Slocomb had improved since the 28-7 loss to Elba three weeks ago, and at the same time was worried about the young players and how they would handle the pressures of the playoffs, and the attitude of the team since they had beaten the Red Tops without much trouble in Slocomb. His fears all seemed warranted in the first half as Slocomb scored first to take a lead and moved the ball on the ground well against the usually tough Tiger defense. At the same time the Elba offense seemed out of sync as it would move the ball well for a couple of plays, then fall apart and fail to put points on the scoreboard after getting in close. A 14-13 Elba lead was not much of a cushion and it remained that way until late in the half when the Tigers finally seemed to wake up and then took command of the game. It was a win, and wins are always hard in the opening round of the playoffs for Elba. So, I guess we should all just remember the score and not worry about how good, or bad, the Tigers played.

The Elba offense moved the ball well all night against the big Slocomb defense and averaged over six yards per carry running. D.J. Belcher and Chris Tyson had big nights and combined for over 200 yards and three touchdowns at the tailback position, which would seem to indicate that the backs must have been running hard and the line must have been doing a pretty good job blocking. The passing game had taken a couple of weeks off because of the rainy weather and it looked rusty Friday night. Keith Grantham did have a sure TD pass dropped in the endzone, but hit only two of seven passes for 28 yards in the win and for the second straight week failed to complete a pass to Josh Caldwell, possibly the best receiver in the state. Maybe the rain had the offense waterlogged, or maybe the timing was off due to a lack of concentration. Or... maybe we all just got a little spoiled and expect the Tigers to play perfect every night out. Time will tell.

The defense had dominated the last four opponents and was beginning to look like the defense that earned the Tigers to the state championship back in 1989, but Friday night the defense got pushed around a couple of times and gave up the most yards they had allowed since the loss to Georgiana. The defense did come up with some big plays and stopped two Slocomb drives deep in Elba territory, so, I guess that the defense was just as scrappy as ever, it was just up against a pretty good offensive team. Linebackers Demaris Barnes and Rudy Free had good games and had some big hits, as did Roscoe Coleman, who had a big second half. The Tiger defense never eased up and never even thought about giving up, which shows that this bunch may be young, but it is also dedicated and plays with every ounce of energy on every play. That's all you can ask.

One person who had a big night, but won't get mentioned in the stats was Josh Caldwell. Caldwell failed to catch a pass and made only three tackles; however, Caldwell returned two punts for an average of 24.7 yards (both of which set up Tiger touchdowns) and returned the second half kickoff 65 yards to give Elba good field position. Caldwell isn't the fastest player on the Elba roster, but Friday night his returns of punts and kicks played a major role in the outcome of the game and he was plenty fast enough.

Summing up the win over Slocomb... it wasn't the most impressive win of the season, but the scoreboard read 35-13 at the final horn and that's a pretty big win. Take away the fumble that resulted in a Red Top score, and add a couple of scores the Tigers failed to get and it could have been much worse. If you don't play well and still beat a good team by 22 points, you must be pretty darn good yourself!

BRANTLEY AND ENTERPRISE STAY IN THE HUNT

The Brantley Bulldogs and Enterprise Wildcats both claimed big wins Friday night and are very much alive heading into round two of the post-season party. Here's a look back at what the area teams did...

BRANTLEY played like it was up against one of the weak sides on its schedule and barely survived with a 21-9 win over Coffee Springs. The Bulldog defense played well and held the Coffee Springs offense to only three points, while the Bulldog offense lost six turnovers and gave up only points on a fumble return for a touchdown. The Brantley offense has the talent to put points on the scoreboard, but that talent has made the wins come a little too easy in the season and Friday night showed that maybe the offense isn't where many thought it was. The defense will keep it in any game, against anybody, but the offense must regroup if the post-season party is to last very long.

ENTERPRISE went down to Foley and simply wore down the Lions as the Wildcats claimed an impressive 27-6 win. The Wildcats have a big offensive line and some big backs that pound the football against opposing defenses, and Friday night were just too much for the Lions to handle. Enterprise had a mid-season slump and went through some games without some key players due to injuries, but now appears to be full throttle and ready to go. The Cats will get a chance this week to show what they've got when Robert E. Lee brings its two-time defending state champs to town.

OPENING ROUND OF PLAYOFFS ALWAYS EXCITING

The opening round of the state playoffs are always exciting and that was certainly the case again last week in all six classes. Here's a quick review of what happened in round one...

CLASS 6A - Prattville, Jess Lanier, Jeff Davis and Central, of Tuscaloosa, all had early good-byes to the playoffs as all were upset in the very first week. The biggest surprise was Central's lopsided 32-10 loss to Berry, followed closely by Prattville's 20-16 loss to Benjamin Russell.

CLASS 5A - Stanhope Elmore was talking state championship after cruising through a 9-1 season, but saw the season come to an abrupt halt Friday night when Eufaula stunned the Mustangs 23-21, on a last-second TD pass. The biggest win in this, or any class, had to be the 67-34 Demopolis win over Childersburg. Demopolis wasn't expected to make much noise in the playoffs, but when you score 67 points, everybody listens.

CLASS 4A - Everything went pretty much according to plan in the 4A week #2 will be the week to watch in 4A.

CLASS 3A - There weren't many real upsets in the 3A ranks, unless the 24-21 Glencoe win over Fultondale counts. Lamar County, the runner-up in '92, was ousted by Winfield 21-0, while Southern Choctaw easily handled the lowly Francis Marion 48-8 and defending champ Elba whipped Slocomb 35-13.

CLASS 2A - There weren't any upsets in this class either, but the margin of some of the wins was a bit surprising. St. Clair County clobbered St. James 47-0. Leroy barely squeaked past Folsom 13-12.

CLASS 1A - The biggest surprise here was Brantley's hum-drum 21-9 win over Coffee Springs, while Courtland cruised to a 42-0 win over Valley Head and defending champ Billingsley made it eight straight wins with a 38-8 romp past Akron. Besides that, all was quiet.

PROGNOSTICATOR TRIPS IN WEEK #1 OF PLAYOFFS

Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator was still griping about Alabama when he came by the office Sunday afternoon, and didn't get in any better mood when asked about his success in week one of the playoffs. The local guess-pert hit on 24 of 30 picks last week for a 80% record. He's still a pretty darn good 84% for the year. He said he hates picking the playoffs and then three down this week's picks. Here is what he says...

Litchfield has been a familiar face in the playoffs in recent years and in the past eight years has been in the playoffs six times, posting an overall record of 11-5, and winning the state 4A title in 1986.

The Eagles opened the '93 season with a 20-6 loss to SA rival Gadsden, then claimed their first win as they defeated SA Emma Sanson 20-12.

ELBA VS. LITCHFIELD

Elba has claimed some of the biggest wins in its rich football history on the road and this week gets a chance to add to it when it travels to Gadsden to battle the high-powered Litchfield Eagles. The Tigers looked uninspired last week in its win over Slocomb, but will have to get excited this week if they are to have a chance against the Eagles. The ride back home should be shorter than the ride to Gadsden.

BRANTLEY VS. BILLINGSLEY

Two of the best teams in the 1A ranks will square off in this second round matchup and the winner should have a relatively smooth ride into the finals. Brantley has won 11 straight games by a combined score of 374-24, but Billingsley won the state championship last season, is playing at home and played a far tougher schedule. The odds are against the Dogs!

BILLINGSLEY VS. BRANTLEY

The Enterprise Wildcats made believers out of a lot of folks last week with a big win over Foley; however, this week the Cats must entertain Robert E. Lee and you can bet the Generals will be sky-high when they come to town. The folks in Montgomery believe that Enterprise has been ducking the Generals for years, but Friday night will have nowhere to run!

Elba slaps Slocomb 35-13

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The Elba Tigers came to life late in the third quarter and then took command in the final stanza as they pounded the Slocomb Red Tops 35-13, in the opening round of the 3A football playoffs.

The win improved the Tigers' record to 6-4 and advanced Elba into second round action against Litchfield, while the Red Tops saw their season end with a 4-7 record.

Slocomb received the opening kick and used its huge size advantage to power its way 79-yards in 11 plays to get on the scoreboard. Steve Miller was the star of the drive for the Red Tops as he gained 67 yards on eight carries, while Bart Peel got the score on a 2-yard blast. Kyle Hand booted the extra-point and with 7:04 left in the opening quarter the Red Tops had drawn first blood, leading 7-0.

Elba's offense was also ready to take the field and quickly moved deep into Slocomb territory as a 61-yard scamper by Chris Tyson gave the Tigers a first down and goal at the Red Top 8-yard line.

A 5-yard run by D.J. Belcher moved the ball to the three-yardline; however, a potential touchdown pass was dropped in the endzone on third down and a fourth down pass fell incomplete as the Tigers failed to take advantage of the early opportunity.

Elba's Josh Caldwell returned a Slocomb punt 25 yards on the Red Tops next possession to set the Tigers up at the Slocomb 19-yardline, and this time the Tigers moved in for their first score of the night!

The touchdown came on second down on a 15-yard run by D.J. Belcher, but the extra-point try was wide, and with 1:34 left in the first quarter the Tigers were still trailing 7-6.

A 23-yard punt return by Josh Caldwell on Slocomb's next punt put the Tigers in business at the Red Top 32-yardline and again led to a Tiger touchdown.

An 18-yard dash by Chris Tyson gave Elba a first down at the Slocomb 14-yardline, and three plays later it was Roscoe Coleman who hulled over from two yards out for the Elba score. D.J. Belcher ran in the two-point conversion and with 9:42 remaining in the second quarter Elba had taken the lead 14-7.

Slocomb's offense woke back up following the Elba touchdown and behind the running of Steve Miller and the passing of Derek Price marched to a first down at the Elba 14-yardline.

Miller gained 53 yards on eight carries during the march and Price hit on two passes for 24 yards. However, a quarterback sack by Dunderay Peterson backed the Red Tops up, and on fourth down and nine a half-back pass fell incomplete as the Tigers turned back the Slocomb threat.

Elba was looking to add to its lead after the big defensive stand and moved out to the Elba 36-yardline with 1:48 left in the half, only to see a pitchout mislanded on a second down play and watched as Slocomb's Bart Peel scooped up the fumble and rambled 28 yards for a Red Top touchdown. The extra-point try failed, but with 1:41 left in the half Slocomb was very much alive, trailing only 14-13.

Josh Caldwell returned the second half kickoff 65-yards to put the Tigers in business at the Slocomb 25-yardline; however, the Elba offense again bogged down and gave the ball back to the Red Tops at the 19-yardline when a fourth down pass fell incomplete.

Slocomb's offense was ready to regain the lead and once again headed toward the Elba goal line behind the running of Steve Miller and Derek Price.

The Red Tops marched 48 yards in seven running plays to reach a first down at the Elba 33-yardline, but this time it was Slocomb that failed to make connections on a pitchout, and Elba's Mott Barnes recovered the fumble to stop the drive at the Tiger 35-yardline!

Elba's Roscoe Coleman intercepted a Red Top pass on the 35-yardline and returned it to the Red Top 42-yardline to give the Tiger offense a much needed spark.

The Tiger offense was still having problems with the Slocomb defense and faced a third down and five after two running plays, but a 24-yard pass from Keith Grantham to Cory Howe breathed life into the offensive unit and one play later D.J. Belcher scored on a six-yard run. Che Vaughan booted the extra-point and with :09 left in the third quarter the Tigers were on top 21-13.

Elba began its next possession at the Slocomb 49-yardline following a short punt and this time needed only two plays to get back on the scoreboard.

An 8-yard run by Roscoe Coleman started the quick scoring drive, while a 41-yard scamper by D.J. Belcher put the Tigers in the endzone. Che Vaughan added the extra-point and with 8:38 left in the game Elba was finally in charge with a 28-13 lead.

Slocomb failed to convert on a fourth down and four gamble at its own 40-yardline on its next possession, and Elba once again wasted little time moving to payoff.

A 19-yard run by Chris Tyson was a big play in the scoring drive, while the key play came on fourth down and 11 at the Red Top 17, when fullback Roscoe Coleman burst through a hole up the middle and bulled for 13 yards and a first down that kept the drive alive.

Keith Grantham hit Rudy Free with a 4-yard scoring pass on the next play and Che Vaughan again hit the p.a.i., as the Tigers stretched their lead to 35-13 with 3:46 left in the game.

Elba had another scoring opportunity late in the game following a pass interception by Chris Hudson, but the Tiger reserves failed to cash in on the scoring chance and at the final horn Elba had the win 35-13.

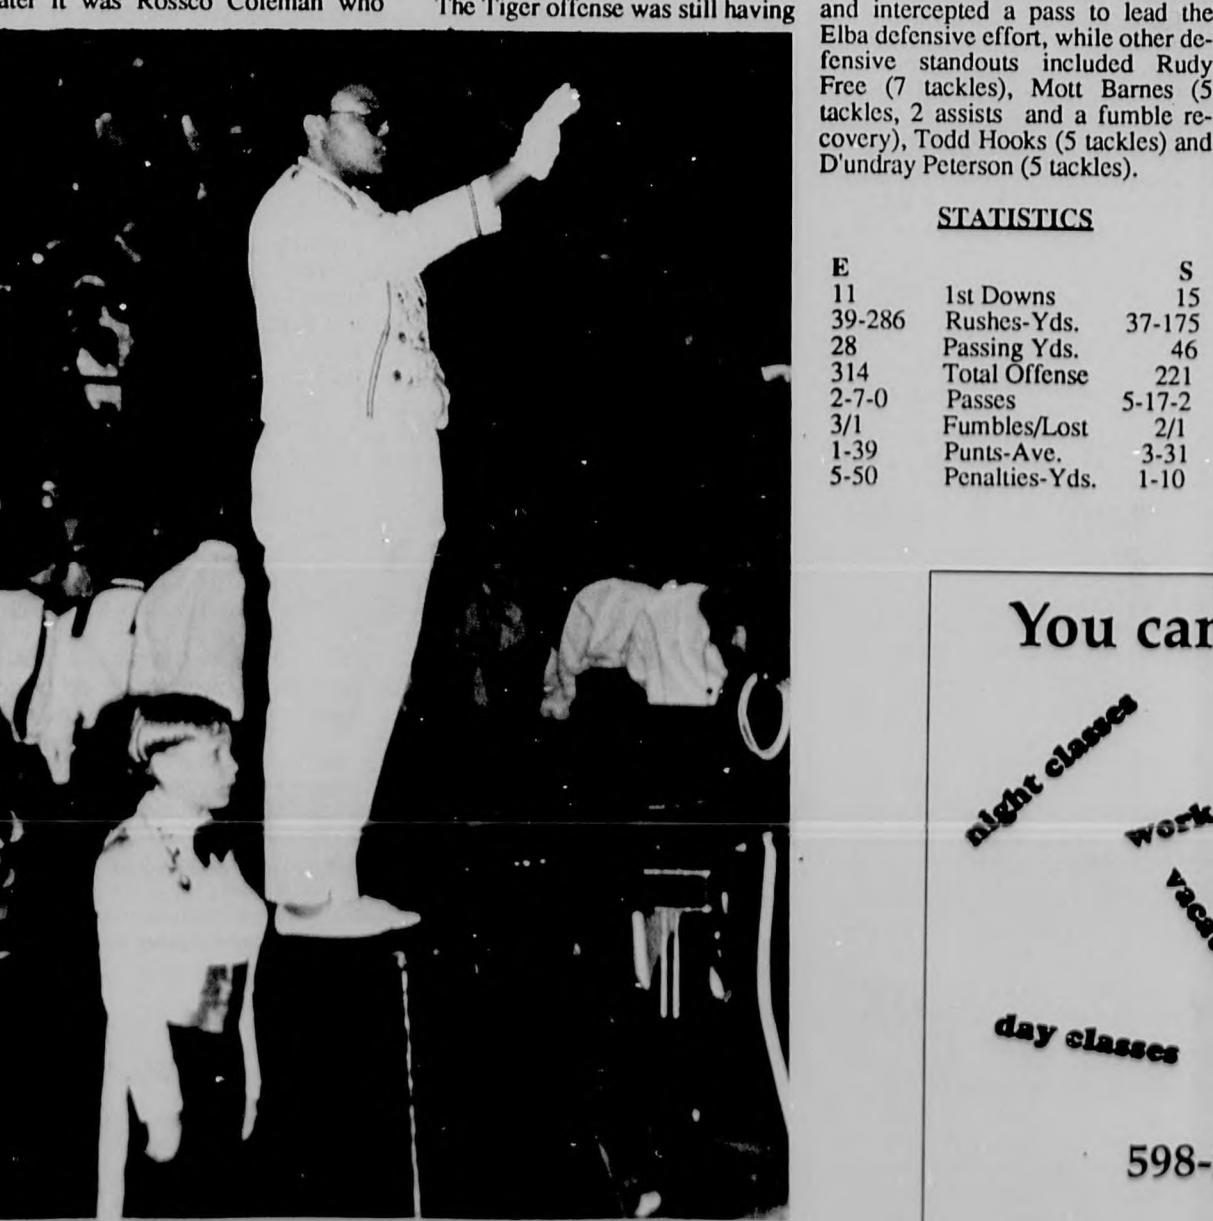

D.J. Belcher gained 100 yards on 12 carries and scored 3 touchdowns to spark the Elba offense, while Chris Tyson added 104 yards on only five carries and Roscoe Coleman gained 56 yards on 12 carries.

Slocomb's Steve Miller gained 161 yards on 26 carries to lead all rushers.

Roscoe Coleman made 8 tackles and intercepted a pass to lead the Elba defensive effort, while other defensive standouts included Rudy Free (7 tackles), Mott Barnes (5 tackles), 2 assists and a fumble recovery, Todd Hooks (5 tackles) and Dunderay Peterson (5 tackles).

Ronald McKinnon named GSC "Player of the Week"

Former Elba Tiger standout Ronald McKinnon was named Gulf South Conference "Defensive Player of the Week" recently for his outstanding performance in the University of North Alabama's 31-21 win over Valdosta State.

McKinnon, a sophomore line-backer, made 9 solo tackles, had 8 assists, caused one fumble, intercepted two passes and returned one interception 29 yards for a touchdown in the important GSC win.

McKinnon, the Gulf South Conference "Defensive Rookie of the Year" last season, has led North Alabama to 10 straight wins this season and the #1 ranking in the nation in Division 2.

Tips For A Top Turkey

Sandra Coffey - County Agent

If this is your first year for cooking a turkey, you have probably heard more than enough from well-meaning friends about the best way to baste and stuff. Now it's time to read yet another way to baste and stuff. Actually, here are some steps that may help you in preparing that tender, juicy turkey. The best and safest way to thaw a turkey is in its wrapper in the refrigerator. However, it may be thawed in the wrapper under continuous cool running water (keep the water cool). Consult the label for thawing times. When completely thawed, remove wrapping. Remove neck and giblets from cavity; refrigerate until needed for stuffing or gravy. Plan on 1/2 cup stuffing per pound for turkeys under 10 pounds; 3/4 cup per pound for turkeys over 10 pounds. Turkeys should be roasted and unstuffed. Lift turkey onto the oven rack in an open pan, about 2 inches deep. Spread oil or melted shortening lightly over the skin to prevent it from drying out and cracking during roasting. Further basting won't keep the bird moist because hand basting only penetrates 1/8 inch deep. Insert a meat thermometer into the thickest part of the thigh, next to the body, not touching the bone. Roast at 325°F. Consult the roasting chart on the wrapper for the approximate roasting time. A 16-pound turkey will be done in about 4 hours. When light golden brown, place a lightweight foil tent loosely over the breast to prevent over-browning. Your turkey is done when: internal thigh temperature reaches 180°-185°F, on the meat thermometer; thigh skin is pricked and juices run clear and are no longer pink; and thigh meat feels soft when pinched (protect your fingers with a paper towel).

Pictured above is Mr. James Harris, 80 year old local gardener and his 11 pound sweet potato. Mr. Harris has been gardening all his life and this is the largest sweet potato he has ever grown. His main tips for gardening are to keep it clean and work it at the right time. He has had a perfect life for eighty years, born in New Brocton in 1912, he has lived there all his life. Mr. Harris and his wife, Queen (Young), have 6 children, 3 boys and 3 girls. If you've never seen a sweet potato this large, stop by and see Mr. Harris. You will certainly enjoy visiting with him. Better hurry though, because sooner or later that sweet potato will be made into a pie.

Elba City Council's Monday meeting ends with fireworks

by Ferrin Cox
Publisher

The Elba City Council meeting Monday night ended with fireworks. After handling several routine matters, forward progress of the meeting hit a road block when Mayor Ricky Haywood asked Attorney Bill Stokes to read a veto message. The message titled, "Veto Message from the Mayor of the City of Elba, Alabama read in part:

"Comes now Ricky Haywood, Mayor of the City of Elba, Alabama and do hereby notify all of the members of the City Council of the City of Elba, Alabama, that I have vetoed

"Mayor had authority to hire personal secretary ... where city council did not take steps to claim exclusive authority to hire city employees..."

The Resolution heretofore passed by this Council, on November 18th, 1993, with reference to the hiring and termination of employment of various City Employees."

The veto was referring to ordinance #1993-A passed two weeks ago by the city council. It was designed to give the city council final approval over hiring of all permanent employees. The ordinance was approved by all five council members. Haywood opposed the ordinance and refused to sign it for publication in The Elba Clipper. Council members determined the signature wasn't necessary and the ordinance was published as required to become law. The balance of the veto message used seven paragraphs of legal terms to say the ordinance violated Sections 11-43-81 and 11-45 of the Code of Alabama.

In later conversation, Stokes referred to a court case where a city council was required to pay the salary of a mayor's private secretary. Reading all of that ruling finds this in Paragraph 4:

"Mayor had authority to hire personal secretary ... where city council did not take steps to claim exclusive authority to hire city employees..."

The council indicated they would approve this also when a lease had been prepared.

meeting and could make the same motion again and he had the same option to fire them.

When asked by council members where this was leading and would he fire them again in the morning if the council voted to reinstate again, the mayor said, "It won't be in the morning. I am tired of writing letters. I am going to fire them again tonight."

Waylon Adkinson addressed the Mayor and said "In other words Mayor, you are saying to hell with the council." The mayor denied that was what he was saying. Adkinson continued with, "I have sat here and listened to all this and I am sick of it. I am concerned about our town and I am concerned about my business. Something has got to happen in Elba, Alabama. We elected five people, five councilmen to run this city. We didn't vote for a dictatorship. After a five minute recess requested by the council, the debate continued.

The council voted to reinstate the terminated employees and to release the two temporary department heads hired by the mayor. Those are the Acting Street Superintendent and Acting Recreation Director. The council then voted unanimously to authorize the Mayor Pro Tem (Bill Brunson) to take whatever legal steps necessary to enforce the actions and/or wishes of the city council.

The meeting was then quickly adjourned.

More leases signed on old city school buildings

The Elba City Council approved leasing parts of the old Elba school complex to four different groups. Mrs. Dolores Fleming was successful in getting a two year lease on the former Junior High wing; Reverend Hiron Williams and The New Abundant Life Deliverance Church a five year lease on the auditorium, two bathrooms and a couple of offices; Ken English received a five year lease on the Elementary school lunchroom and kitchen; a group called Basic Outreach has requested the back part of the "new" wing of the former high school, up to the breezeway. The council indicated they would approve this also when a lease had been prepared.

A lengthy debate erupted during discussion on these leases. Council members expressed concern over the safety of the flood damaged buildings. The motions to lease the facilities included an agreement that the safety of the facilities would be determined before any public use was permitted.

The council approved a $504.80 bill from Maddox Signs. This was for some trophies and plaques ordered for the Recreation Department a couple of weeks ago, according to the mayor. They also approved payment of attorney fees to the plaintiff lawyers in the redistricting lawsuit. These fees had been ordered by the federal court in the case.

Mrs. Helen McCollough was re-appointed to the Elba Housing Authority.

Police Chief Jack Parker reported the department received 34 complaints and issued 16 traffic citations, including four for driving under the influence. There were 19 criminal arrests and three auto accidents investigated. Police officers cited 18 for doing business in the City of Elba without a business license.

The animal control officer picked up 12 dogs. Mayor Ricky Haywood told the council he still didn't know exactly how much extra money would be needed to meet the bond payment due on December 5th. He said he would call city council members on the telephone as soon as he had that number.

Council member Gladys Yelverton asked if a special meeting wouldn't be necessary if there wasn't enough money in the bank to make the payment. Finally Haywood understood her question and said he would call an afternoon or evening meeting if that was necessary.

An operating budget for the city still hasn't been approved. However Brunson passed out copies of a revised budget proposal for council members to consider for the next two weeks. Brunson's proposal doesn't require an additional 12 sales tax (or any tax increase) requested by Haywood.

Mrs. Treva Driscoll, representing the 20th Century Study Club and the Azalea Garden Club, asked several questions about Elba recycling program. She also requested that Elba get into recycling newspapers and other reusable items.

the Acting Street Superintendent and Acting Recreation Director. The council then voted unanimously to authorize the Mayor Pro Tem (Bill Brunson) to take whatever legal steps necessary to enforce the actions and/or wishes of the city council.

The meeting was then quickly adjourned.

Coffee County Commission ups sheriff's salary $7,500.00

by Marvin McIlwain

Please do not mix rubbish & garbage

The City of Elba is requesting that citizens do not mix rubbish and garbage in with the leaves they rake from their yards.

Mayor Ricky Haywood said the city would continue to pick up those in plastic bags, but they don't want plastics or anything else mixed with the leaves.

Haywood explained that they are starting a composting program and furnishing leaves to homeowners. However these must be free of non-composting materials.

After researching the matter, Sheriff Paul was unable to find in the Alabama Code or locally where it was legally within the coroner's authority to appoint a deputy.

With the introduction and passage of local legislation, this will be possible. The commissioners approved the move.

Paul's second request deal with the sheriff's salary. Presently, Coffee County's sheriff receives an annual salary of $40,000.00.

The state's constitution sets the sheriff's salary at $35,000 while local legislation allows for an additional $5,000.

A sheriff's salary cannot be increased during his present term of office, but an increase can be made with it being paid at the beginning of the next term.

Paul asked that the commissioners give their blessing to local legislation raising the sheriff's salary to $55,000.00.

Commissioner Sid Averett opposed the raising of the sheriff's salary.

Averett cited other cases where salary increases were mandated by the legislature but no money was forthcoming.

Sheriff Paul's contention was that in order to get a qualified man to run for sheriff, the salary will have to be made attractive.

"A sheriff works 24-hours a day - seven days a week - 365 days a year," said Paul.

After much discussion, the commission compromised and agreed to support local legislation raising the sheriff's salary to $47,500.00.

Paul's final request was for the increase of the cost of a pistol permit from $10 to $20. This also requires local legislation.

Of the $20, the sheriff's department is to receive $12 and the county will get $8.

Sheriff Paul pointed out that the pistol permits presently generate between $6,000 and $8,000 annually.

The funds are used to buy equipment, provide specialized training for deputies and other items needed by the sheriff's department who authorized installing the pipe out Taylor Mill Road when work officially approved by the board on Herman Drivers Drive still isn't done.

It was agreed that any further water line extensions would be approved by the board.

McCullough also asked if any action had been taken to mark utility owned tools to prevent them from disappearing. He was told this would be done in the near future.

The board voted to increase the charge to cable TV company TCI for use of city poles from $4 annually to $5 annually, the same price paid by the telephone company.

The board approved a revision in the operating budget, cutting salaries from $425,000 to $365,000. Murdock explained this was a mistake made by the bookkeeper in including some city employees with the utility employees.

An engineer was hired to oversee a painting project on the water tank located at the Brantley Highway location. Patricia Mitchell will oversee this work.

Elba W&E Board's finances improve

The monthly Elba Water & Electric Board was held Monday evening, November 18th.

Monthly bills totaling $29,573 were approved for payment.

The financial statement indicated the cash position has increased from $167,000 to $292,000, largely due to a decrease in account receivables.

The Board approved Operations Manager Henry Clark to sign checks.

Clark is authorized to sign payroll checks and to co-sign other checks with Chairman Mickey Murdock. This system had been used satisfactorily with City Clerk Jeff Goodson before he resigned.

Board member Earl McCollough questioned the purchase of 1,000 feet of 6" PVC water pipe. He asked increase in elementary students more than offset that drop. A legislative bill lowering the maximum number of students in the classroom to 25 for the lower grades adds a grade each year.

Pearce also predicted a larger check from federal impact aid will bolster the budget. Impact aid comes from the federal government and is based on three things: children of full time military personnel, children of civilians involved with government agencies and those residing in federal subsidized housing.

Anise Coleman resigned from the Elementary School custodial staff and was replaced by Mary Ann Lee.

The board adjourned and met informally to review a new computer program at the high school library.

Elba police arrest local man on four counts of sodomy

An Elba man was arrested Friday morning, November 19, and charged with four (4) Class A felonies.

According to law enforcement officials, William "Bill" Waldon, 57, of Cedar Lane Drive in Elba, was arrested and charged with four counts of sodomy in the first degree.

The arrest came as a result of an investigation that was initiated by the Elba Police Department received a complaint of sodomy and sexual abuse of juveniles.

Elba's investigative division began the investigation into the matter. Upon conviction, 1st degree sodomy is punishable by imprisonment of 10 to 99 years and a fine of not more than $20,000 in each count.

Waldon was placed in the Coffee County Jail in New Brocton but later released on a $100,000 bond.

The matter is still under investigation by the Elba police and the 12 Judicial Circuit District Attorney's Office.

Local BOE receives nothing but good news from super

by Ferrin Cox

Superintendent Charles Pearce had nothing but good news for the Elba City School Board Thursday night.

The first bit of news was that a recent letter from State Superintendent of Education Wayne Teague announcing that increased enrollment in the Elba schools qualifies the school for an additional 2.17 teacher units. This converts to about $65,000 a year in additional funds from the state.

The local system has been funding 14 teachers on a local level and this action will give some relief to the multi-million dollar local school budget.

Pearce explained the increase in teacher units was due to several things. Even though there was a drop in enrollment in the high school, an
